

Week of the Young Child

Moore County Calendar of Events

April 12—18, 2015

SATURDAY, APRIL 11:

Lego Build Saturday at Moore County Library, Carthage at 11:00am: Kick off Week of the Young Child early! Come build with others, explore your engineering side and show off your creative skills!

SUNDAY, APRIL 12:

Children's Day at Carthage Historical Museum from 2-5 pm: Bring your children along for some fun, FREE, family learning. In addition to exploring the museum, families will enjoy storytelling, refreshment, and live music!

MONDAY, APRIL 13:

Day of Thanks: Take some time today to honor your child's early education teachers. They play a crucial role in our community, helping make sure that the children in our lives are getting the care and education they need and deserve.

TUESDAY, APRIL 14:

Baby Bunnies Storytime at Southern Pines Public Library at 10:30 am: This caregiver and child interactive storytime is for Southern Pines Public Library's youngest patrons, babies and young toddlers. Everyone will sing songs, learn rhymes, play games, and listen to fun stories!

Early Childhood Symposium at Northern Moore Family Resource Center at 10:30 am: Join the Northern Moore Family Resource Center to learn more about early education in Moore County, the new H.O.P.E Academy in Robbins, and designs for a new and improved playground. We will meet at the former Robbins Fire & Rescue Squad Buildings on SE Broad Street between Middleton and Rockingham Streets. Call (910) 948-4324 for more information.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15:

Every Child Ready to Read Family Workshop at Life Care Pregnancy Center at 10:00 am: Come learn about easy and fun ways to develop children's language and pre-reading skills. This workshop is available to families with children pre-birth to age 2. Participants will receive a free book and earn extra diaper points. Contact the Center at (910) 947-6199 for more information.

Read to your Bunny at Southern Pines Public Library at 3:30 pm: Children birth through age 5 and their families are invited to enjoy stories, songs and fun and stay for playtime after the stories are over.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16:

Every Child Ready to Read Family Workshop at Life Care Pregnancy Center at 1:00 pm: Come learn about easy and fun ways to develop children's language and pre-reading skills. This workshop is available to families with children pre-birth to age 2. Participants will receive a free book and earn extra diaper points. Contact the Center at (910) 947-6199 for more information.

Family Fun Night at Southern Pines Public Library at 5:30 pm: Join in the construction of a shoe box city. Kids in grades K-5 and their families are invited to build and bring to life their own perfect city.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17:

2015 Kindergarten Registration Day for Moore County Schools

SATURDAY, APRIL 18:

Playspace Community Build in Robbins at 8:00 am: The Northern Moore Family Resource Center needs your help! Join us as we team up to build a playground for the children in Robbins at the Tracey C. Brown Park on Rockingham Street near downtown. We are seeking volunteers who do not have to be skilled, trained or have any special tools; they just have to be enthusiastic, energetic, a team player, willing to work, and have fun! (And be at least 18 years of age). Call the Resource Center at (910) 948-4324 to sign up or for more information.

Eagle Springs Children's Parade at 10:00 am: The first annual Eagle Springs Children's Parade is a fun opportunity for children, families, and churches to come together and celebrate our community. The parade will start in front of Eagle Springs Baptist Church at 460 Eagle Springs Road at 10:00 am. Bring posters, flags, homemade musical instruments, dress up clothes, wagons, or trikes with children to help make this event even more festive! Call Matt Brogli at 910-673-3590 for more information.

Celebration of the Military Child at the Village Arboretum in Pinehurst from 12-3 pm: Join The Kiwanis Club of the Sandhills and Pinehurst Parks & Recreation Department in recognizing and showing appreciation for our military children. This event will include a cookout, Jazz entertainment, the 82nd Airborne Chorus, and a magician! This event is free and open to all.

Earth Day at Southern Pines Public Library: Enjoy a day of fun in celebration of Earth Day!
