

THE WONDER OF LEARNING

the hundred languages of children
REGGIO EMILIA, ITALY

Exhibition of the infant-toddler centers and preschools of the Istituzione - Municipality of Reggio Emilia, Italy North American Version

ORDINARY MOMENTS, EXTRAORDINARY LEARNING

Neighborhood as an Extension of the Classroom

Featuring Keynote Speakers Andrea Sisbarro & Alison Maher from Boulder Journey School

When teachers and children explore ordinary moments, extraordinary learning occurs!

Come learn about the benefits of stepping just outside the classroom door with your students, and engaging with your neighborhood as researchers.

February 10th and 11th, 9:00 AM -5:00 PM - light breakfast and lunch provided each day

Location: The Trotter Building, 410 W Geer St, Durham, NC

General public: $100 NAREA members: $90 Our Partner Organizations are eligible for a discount

This workshop includes keynote presentations, research trips in the neighborhood, and a visit to The Wonder Of Learning: The Hundred Languages of Children Exhibit

Register: <http://www.northcarolinawol.org/events/>

A Collaboration Between

Hosted in North Carolina by

Duke

SANFORD
SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY

